COA Catalog and supplement 1972-73

Identifier: 1117

Type: Publication, Catalog

Title: COA Catalog and supplement 1972-73

Subject: Organizations, School Institution

Description: This is the first COA academic catalog.

"This catalogue is the result of two years of planning and thought. In many ways it is just a beginning. We are proposing a new direction in higher education, based on the changing needs of our social and natural environment. College of the Atlantic is a mission-oriented institution. We espouse a broadly-based education as a means of providing the necessary perspective for the study and understanding of human ecology. The program is problem centered, but is designed to utilize the thought and research generated by theoretical study."

Such a Frail Bark

Identifier: 2296

Type: Document

Title: Such a Frail Bark

Subject: Organizations, School Institution

Description: During the fall of 1982, the COA Oral History Workshop collected and prepared oral history interviews documenting COA's founding and early years. For her senior project, Bethany Arownow '83 edited these interviews into a booklet entitled "Such a Frail Bark". The book is fascinating and contains photographs of Kaelber Hall and people instrumental in COA's birth and life.
